

Press release

"Brussels meets Zagreb" - EU Affairs & EU Funding programme for Croatia and SE Europe

Module 1, Zagreb, February 24 - 25, 2011

"How to be successful with EU funding"

Partneri :

Croatia is in the final negotiations to join the European Union. Croatian and regional economy, as well as the public sector (cities, local governments, public enterprises) are faced with the need to learn about European Union topics, the manner of its functioning, models and ways of cooperation with EU bodies and institutions, as well as about EU funding possibilities and preparations for the use/implementation of EU funds.

Taking into account the current stage of Croatian accession to the European Union, consulting-lobbying company CBBS Ltd from Zagreb, Faculty of Economics in Zagreb, University of Zagreb and, European Training Institute (ETI), one of the a leading EU training institutions from Brussels, are starting a joint co operation & partnership on the organization of EU training programme "Brussels Meets Zagreb".

EU Affairs & EU Funding programme will be organized in 2 modules, the start of the first module in Zagreb, on EU funds and preparation of EU projects is February 24 - 25, 2011 and the second one, focused on EU lobbying, communication and working with EU institutions will take place in ETI premises in Brussels, March 30 - April 1, 2011.

Speakers in Module 1 in Zagreb will be ETI lecturers and EU experts, Jan Droege and Oanna Pennu but also Croatian and Hungarian speakers, with the success stories and experiences in working with EU funds and projects.

Modules in Zagreb and Brussels are covering the following topics:

- EU funds (current and future EU funding for Croatia and the region of SE Europe, preparation of EU projects);
- EU institutions and associations, EU decision making process;
- EU Lobbying EU;
- Negotiation, Media and Communication in EU

Zagreb - Brussels, February 24 - 25, 2011